Secretary Hay Asks Santa Claud Congress For Salary Additions.

Eight Ohioans, Four Pennsylvanians and One West Virginian Recommended.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 13.-In a letter to Congress asking for ines for consular officers Secrefary Hay asks consideration for the claims of eight Ohloans, four Pennsylvanians and one West Virginian. The Secretary makes a particularly strong recommendation in behalf of James C. McNally, of Pittsburg, consul at Liege, Belgium, whose salary he would like to see increased from $2,000 to $3,500. McNally has done a lot of good work and when he was transferred from the consulate generalship at Guatemala to Liege, on account of the trouble between himself and Godfrey Hunter, then the American minister at Guatemala, Mc-Nally was promised a better place.

Another recommendation is that the salary of W. T. Fee, of Warren, O., consul at Bombay, India, be raised from $2,500 to $3,500 on account of the very high cost of living and the unhealthy climate. Mr. Fee lost his daughter by the plague a few months ago. An increase from $1,500 to 32,000 is asked for William Ross Davis, of Stenbenville, at Alexandretin. Syria, who is in danger of being transferred from that post because the Sultan thinks Davis offered him a personal affront by hauling down the American flag on Ascension Day, the Turkish equivalent to the Fourth of July. Still another Ollioan for whom more money will be asked is Frank H. Mason, consul general at Berlin, whom $5,000 is asked, an increase of $1,000.

Other Ohioans for whom increases are requested are: Thomas H. Norton, at Harput, Turkey, from $1,500 to $2,000; P. Merrill Griffith, at Manranillo, Mexico, from $1,500 to $2,000; James M. Ayers, at Rosario, Argen tina, from $2,000 to $2,500, and Ed-F. Gunsaullus at Toronto, Canada, from $2,000 to $3,000. The other Pennsylvanians are: Walter C. Hamm, at Hull, England, from $2,000 to $2,500; T. William Peters, at St Gall, Switzerland, from $3,000 to $4, 000, and W. J. Pike, Zittau, Germany, from $1,500 to $2,000. The lone West 106 Main street, next door to Citizens' Virginian for whom an increase is asked is J. T. Hoke, Windsor, Nova Scotia, from $1,500 to $2,000.

MADE LEGISLATIVE

COMMITTEE DRUNK

Charge Made to Show How a Rail road Company Beat the State of Indiana.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 13.-William A Ketchum, former attorney general of Indiana and as such employed to try to force the Vandalia Railroad Company to pay to the State the sum of $3,000,000, filed a complaint against the company, alleging that the State had been prevented in the past from investigating and enforcing its claim because of the corruption of its agents by the company.

The case was in the courts several months ago, and the Supreme Court found in favor of the State and fixed the amount as approximately $1,000. ood. The company appealed to the United States Supreme Court, and that tribunal reversed the judgment on the ground that the State had slept on its rights and had delayed too long in the attempt to enforce its claim. The case was sent back to the State courts with instructions to find for the railroad company, but Ketchum secured permission to file another suft showing why the claim had not been prosecuted.

the legislature sent its committee to investigate the books of the company, to discover the amount of indebtedness under its special charter, the members of the committee got free transportation and hotel expenses and that their duties were usurped by the officers of the company. The members of the committee were made drunk, he says, in order to prevent the investigation.

It is also charged that members of ertain committees were bought outright and that, as it was through the company's frauds upon the State that Cleaning, dyeing, pressing and repairinvestigation was delayed from time to time, the company cannot in equity claim exemption because of Barber, No. 814 Fourth St. 5th Ward. the lapses of time.

Evidence will be taken under the complaint, and members of the legislative committees who were charged with selling out to the company will be called to testify.

FOR THE CONSULS Mystery of Blaze in Lynn Works at Milesville is Solved.

> PITTSBURG, Pa., Dec. 12.-The Lynn coal mine at Milesville is on fire. The burrow of a groundhog is said to have been the cause. Over 100 miners are out of work. It will cost the Glassport Coal Company, owners of the mine, several hundred dollars to extinguish the fire.

> For several weeks Superintendent W. A. Wilson has been aware that fire existed in the mine, but it could not be located. Saturday George Crossland, the pit boss, discovered smoke coming from a hole in the surface that had been a groundhog's retreat. Flames from the recent forest fires swept into the groundhog's hole and set fire to the coal. One thousand feet of pipe were laid to the Monongahela river and engines will be installed to-day to pump water to flood the mine.

The End of Toil.

How sweetly it comes back, how tenderly,

That evening's end; no little thing forgot: The fire made safe; set back the steaming pot; Windows and doors shut tightly as could be:

The tall clock wound; the house all still; and then-The dear old man his candle takes and goes

To seek his own well-earned, prayerblest repose. His heart at peace with all the sons of men.

And, when we to the end of toil have

And it is time for us to go to bed, May we as gently move into our rest.

Leaving no simplest needful thing undone.

No word of healing gentleness unsaid. Some lamp of God close to our bosoms pressed. -John White Chadwick.

WALKS AND TALKS.

By Julius Chambers, in Pittsburg Dispatch.

Doubt no longer exists that Secreary Taft is in training for the Presidential nomination four years hence. Ohio is expected to supply another Republican candidate as the Chief Executive of the United States, A noticeable coldness between Senator Foraker and the friends of the young Secretary has already manifested itself. Mr. Foraker has been content to wait, confident that his opportunity would come in 1908; but the appearance of his fellow townsman has been an unexpected blow. Senator Fairbanks does not view with any greater complacency the sudden ascendency of Secretary Taft, and a combination between all the anti-Taft Republicans in his favor is the hope of the Vice-President-elect.

The campaign of 1908 for the Republican nomination has practically begun A few weeks after Christmas an informal organization will be effected. A "bureau of education" will begin work and the availability of Judge Taft for a seat on the Supreme Bench, where he will be shelved, will be constantly set forth. It is generally understood at Washington that the President is willing Secretary Taft should have the next vacancy on the Supreme bench, but that the Ohio man will not consider any post short of the Chief Justiceship. Mr. Fuller does not attain the age of enforced retirement for seven years; waiting for a dead man's shoes is not acceptable to the Secretary of matter will be shown after March 4. Secretary Hay is believed to be the Roosevelt selection. Although the resignations of all the members of the cabinet will be placed in the President's hands, John Hay will be asked to stay. How long he will consent to remain will depend upon the effect of persuasion upon him. Mr. Hay is not ambitious for the Presidency. He has attained a place in almost contemporaneous history equal to that of any President since Lincoln. General regret will be felt among many personal admirers of Senator Foraker in both parties that he is to be forced out of the running. He is a strong man and has proved the stanch friend of our new colonies—especially the Philippines.
